PROCESS INTRODUCTION

The IPEGS Process

Miami-Dade County Public Schools' (M-DCPS) evaluation of all instructional personnel utilizes the Goals and Roles Assessment and Evaluation Model[®] (short title: Goals and Roles Model[®]) of evaluation developed by Dr. James Stronge, for collecting and presenting data to document performance that is based on well-defined performance standards.

The M-DCPS Instructional Performance Evaluation and Growth System (IPEGS) provides a balance between structure and flexibility. That is, it defines expectations and guides effective practice, thereby allowing for creativity and individual initiative. The goal is to support the continuous growth and development of each professional by monitoring, analyzing, and applying pertinent data compiled within a system of meaningful feedback.

Since the initial collaboration of M-DCPS/UTD to design and implement the IPEGS evaluation system, the Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation has met regularly. This systematic collaboration has made certain that IPEGS continues to meet its design goals, address legislative changes, and ensure equitable implementation.

In the past twelve years, due to numerous state laws and regulations (e.g., Senate Bill (SB) 736 – The Student Success Act) governing the evaluation criteria for teachers, IPEGS has undergone many modifications. As a result of this continuous collaboration and work of the Joint Committee, the following changes have been made:

- modification of the Improving Professional Performance process
- inclusion of iHEAT Initiative peer review process (2013-2014 to 2016-2017)
- addition of the IPEGS Performance Standards Rating(s) Review Process
- replacement of Goal Setting Process with Value-Added-Model (VAM) scores (The Student Success Act of 2011 – formerly SB 736)
- modification of the evaluation process in accordance with House Bill (HB) 7069 – Education Accountability
- addition of the Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) process (HB 7069)

All full-time instructional personnel are evaluated annually using the IPEGS process.

PURPOSES

The primary purposes of IPEGS are to:

- improve the quality of instruction
- ensure accountability for classroom/program performance
- increase student learning growth by improving the quality of instructional services
- contribute to successful achievement of the goals and objectives defined in the vision, mission, and goals of M-DCPS
- provide a basis for instructional improvement through productive instructional personnel appraisal and professional growth
- provide a collaborative process that promotes professional growth, instructional effectiveness, and improvement of overall job performance

CHARACTERISTICS

IPEGS includes the following distinguishing characteristics:

- ◆ a focus on the relationship between professional performance and improved learner academic achievement
- ◆ performance standards specific to major instructional job categories
- ◆ sample indicators for each of the performance standards
- ◆ a system for documenting instructional personnel performance based on multiple data sources including evidence of improved student performance on the state and local achievement tests as required by Florida Statute §1012.34
- ◆ a procedure for conducting performance reviews that involves instructional personnel in the evaluation process, promotes professional improvement, and provides accountability
- ◆ a support system for providing assistance to the professional when appropriate

ROLE OF INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL

Throughout this handbook, the term “instructional personnnel” is used interchangeably with other terms (see Table 1: Interchangeable Terms Used in the Handbook). IPEGS is designed to facilitate instructional personnel in identifying, designing, and reflecting upon their professional performance. The foundation of the system is the Goals and Roles Model[®]. Using the model, a series of performance standards was defined as well as documentation sources to use for assessing performance. Instructional personnel are responsible for submitting data (see page 18 “Documenting Performance”) to their administrators throughout the evaluation process.

For most instructional personnel, the administrator who will review the data sources is their site administrator; however, a site administrator can designate another administrator to review the data and make summative ratings recommendations. Instructional personnel are active participants in the evaluation process through collaborative meetings, input, and reflection.

ROLE OF SITE
ADMINISTRATORS/
ASSESSORS

Site administrators are responsible for facilitating the IPEGS process. Two terms are commonly used in the handbook to refer to administrators; they are “site administrator” and “assessor” (see Table 1: Interchangeable Terms Used in the Handbook). The term “site administrator” is used when the function described may only be conducted by the site administrator (e.g., principal). The term “assessor” is used when the function described may be conducted by either the site administrator or the site administrator’s designee (e.g., assistant principal). For professionals assigned to more than one location, the payroll location site administrator has the overall evaluation responsibilities; however, the regional center or district may designate another administrator to collect documentation, make summative ratings recommendations, and meet with instructional personnel assigned to them. (See Table 5: Observation by Contract Status on page 19.)

The site administrator is responsible for informing the professional when the evaluation documentation should be given to another administrator. For example, in a school, the principal is responsible for the evaluation process and may assign assistant principals to conduct observations and make recommendations for summative ratings.

Although the site administrator has the overall responsibility for maintaining documentation, selected responsibilities can be delegated to a designee: scheduling evaluation-related meetings; providing feedback on performance throughout the year; making summative ratings; and submitting documentation to the appropriate district office. However, the principal/site administrator makes the final determination of the ratings and recommendation for continued employment.

THE FOUNDATION OF IPEGS: USING THE GOALS AND ROLES MODEL[©]

A meaningful and productive personnel evaluation system, such as that used for teachers and other instructional personnel in the M-DCPS, addresses the unique contributions of each employee to the achievement of the district's vision, mission, and core values. Additionally, the evaluation system focuses on opportunities for professional growth by employees within the system so that each can grow professionally and contribute in a productive fashion to school improvement plans and goals. The Goals and Roles Model[©] offers a practical, contemporary research-based model of personnel evaluation developed specifically to balance the unique role demands and professional growth needs of teachers and other instructional personnel (Stronge, 1997, 2005).

The following sections describe the conceptual framework of Goals and Roles[©] — the model upon which the instructional personnel evaluation system is built. This description merely reflects a conceptual framework; the details for the design and implementation of the performance evaluation system were developed in collaboration with the M-DCPS/UTD evaluation design committees and the administration to reflect the unique needs of the M-DCPS and its instructional personnel.

The realization that an organization's goals are met through the collective performance of all personnel is the basis of the Goals and Roles Model[©] developed by Dr. James Stronge. This model is based on more than two (2) decades of work with school systems and other educational organizations. The underlying assumptions are as follows:

- ◆ Effective evaluation promotes the growth and development of the individual and the school.
- ◆ A well-defined evaluation system:
 - provides a basis for an objective evaluation based on observable, job-related results, and its purposes are clearly established for the individual professional (Tucker & Stronge, 2005a).
 - makes the school accountable to its public and is legally defensible in its treatment of all employees (Beckham, 1985).
- ◆ Instructional personnel have a legal and ethical right to understand the criteria used to evaluate their performance (Florida Statute §1012.34. See Appendix F..
- ◆ A unified evaluation process for all teachers and other instructional personnel across M-DCPS is a more efficient use of school resources and administrative and staff time than multiple evaluation systems.
- ◆ All instructional personnel deserve well-defined job descriptions, ongoing systematic performance feedback, and appropriate opportunities for improvement.

¹The Goals and Roles Model[©] was developed by and copyrighted to James H. Stronge. M-DCPS has been granted the right to use, revise, and/or modify the evaluation model and associated instrumentation as needed.

KEY FEATURES OF THE GOALS
AND ROLES

MODEL[®] The key features that are incorporated in Goals and Roles[®] and that are emphasized in the design of IPEGS include:

Adaptability

The Goals and Roles Model[®] is both comprehensive and adaptable for use with a variety of educational positions. The Goals and Roles Model[®] has been adapted for use with three (3) main groups of M-DCPS instructional personnel: instructional support personnel¹, student services personnel², and teachers. Throughout the M-DCPS project, the three (3) design teams built on this key feature of adaptability by:

- ◆ accentuating the use of a uniform design for evaluating all instructional professionals;
- ◆ designing the performance assessment system for non-classroom instructional personnel (Stronge & Helm, 1990, 1991, 1992; Stronge & Tucker, 1995, 2003b); and
- ◆ designing evaluation strategies and processes that account for an educator’s different levels of professional growth.

Systematic Approach to Evaluation

It is not feasible for school principals or other assessors to implement multiple evaluation systems with different requirements, guidelines, and methods. The six-step evaluation cycle of the Goals and Roles Model[®] provides an efficient, standardized method for implementing evaluation. While assessment forms and processes are differentiated for the various instructional positions, the evaluation model and protocol are standardized. This combination of standardizing the evaluation framework and customizing its application to fit specific position needs allows for a more valid and easy-to-use evaluation system while, at the same time, accounting for important distinctions in roles and responsibilities of various instructional personnel.

Emphasis on Communication Throughout the Evaluation Process

Performance appraisal systems should reflect the fundamental role that effective communication plays in every aspect of the evaluation process (Helm and St. Maurice, 2005; McGrath, 1993). Since the goal of any evaluation is to continue successful job performance or improve less successful ones, assessor-professional communication is essential. Thus, opportunities for systematic communication between assessors and instructional personnel are built into IPEGS.

Technically Sound Evaluation Systems

While a conceptually sound and technically valid evaluation system does not guarantee effective evaluation, one that is flawed and irrational will guarantee failure. The Goals and Roles Model[®] is designed as an evaluation system that is conceptually and technically sound, and promotes the likelihood of achieving such desirable outcomes as those described in the guiding assumptions of the national Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation Personnel Evaluation Standards (2009).

¹Sample instructional support personnel job titles include, but are not limited to: activities directors, athletic directors, business managers, curriculum support specialists, educational specialists, instructional coaches, lead teachers, library/media specialists, special education program specialists, teacher trainers, and teachers on special assignment.

²Sample student services personnel job titles include, but are not limited to: art therapists, career specialists, counselors, occupational therapists, physical therapists, school psychologists, school social workers, speech/language pathologists, staffing specialists, and TRUST specialists.

Use of Multiple Data Sources

The design of the Goals and Roles Model[®] emphasizes multifaceted assessment techniques for documentation of job performance. The use of multiple sources of information:

- ◆ increases the validity of an evaluation for any professional educator;
- ◆ allows for differing documentation needs based on job responsibilities of particular positions (e.g., classroom teacher vs. school counselor); and
- ◆ provides for differentiation of performance for personnel at various points in their careers (Stronge & Tucker, 2003a).

While formal observation can provide a significant data source, too frequently it has represented the sole source of data collection under clinical supervision evaluation models. Multiple data sources are needed as no single source can adequately capture the complexities of instructional personnel's work (Peterson, 2005). The use of multiple sources of information is a key feature incorporated into the M-DCPS performance evaluation system for instructional personnel.

The proper use of multiple data sources in performance evaluation can dramatically improve the utility of the evaluation system for instructional personnel (e.g., through better performance feedback). Additionally, the use of multiple data sources can enhance the validity and reliability of the process, and offer a more defensible basis for evaluation decisions.

STEPS IN THE GOALS AND ROLES MODEL[®]

The instructional personnel performance evaluation process is based on the Goals and Roles Model[®] (Stronge, 1997, 2005), a six-step approach to performance assessment. A graphic representation of the model is provided in Figure 1. Table 2 provides a brief description of each step.

IDENTIFYING INSTRUCTIONAL PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

Clearly defined performance standards for personnel constitute the foundation for the instructional personnel evaluation system. A fair and comprehensive evaluation system provides sufficient detail, accuracy, and opportunities for collegial conversations so that both professionals and assessors reasonably understand the standards. The following are the IPEGS performance standards:

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

Performance standards refer to the major duties performed and vary based on the role of the professional: teacher, instructional support personnel, or student services personnel.

Performance Standards for Teachers

For teachers, there are eight performance standards which are described below.

Alignment of the Performance Standards to the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices

The Miami-Dade County Public Schools instructional professional performance standards are aligned with the six (6) Florida Educator Accomplished Practices (FEAPs). The FEAPs are interdependent, and therefore aligned to multiple performance standards. The roles and responsibilities of the classroom teacher, instructional support personnel, and student services personnel differ in some critical ways. Therefore, the performance standards and indicators applicable to each position also differ. Please refer to Tables 3A, 3B, and 3C below for information regarding the alignment between the FEAPs and IPEGS Performance Standards applicable to each position.

A Florida State Board Rule identifies 6 “essential practices of effective teaching.” They are called The Educator Accomplished Practices.
 6A-5.065
 Florida State Board Rule

The Florida Educator Accomplished Practices are incorporated into the Performance Standards for classroom teachers, instructional support personnel, and student services personnel, as appropriate for each job assignment, with corresponding sample performance indicators to inform the observation and evaluation process.

PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

Performance indicators have been developed (see Part II) to provide examples of observable, tangible behaviors for IPEGS Performance Standards 2-8 for Teachers and IPEGS Performance Standards 2-7 for Instructional Support and Student Services Professionals. That is, the performance indicators are examples of the types of performance that may occur if a standard is being successfully met. Part II of the handbook contains a section called “Contemporary Effective Teacher Research” that highlights the research base for the performance standards and accompanying performance indicators. Both assessors and professionals may consult the performance indicators for clarification of performance expectations.

Ratings are NOT made at the performance indicator level but at the performance standard level (see page 27 Table 7: Definitions of Terms Used in Rating Scale). The list of performance indicators is not exhaustive. Further, all professionals are not expected to demonstrate each performance indicator.

DOCUMENTING PERFORMANCE

A fair and equitable performance evaluation system for the role of a professional acknowledges the complexities of the job. Thus, multiple data sources are necessary to provide for a comprehensive and authentic “performance portrait” of the instructional professional’s work. The sources of information briefly described in Table 4 include performance measures defined in state statute for learner progress, observable performance indicators of effective instructional practice and additional data sources regarding teaching and learning as a means of providing accurate feedback on instructional professional performance.

Table 4: Data Sources for Instructional Professionals

Data Source	Definition
Learner Progress	Pursuant to state statutes 1012.34 and 1008.22, as amended in 2011 under the Student Success Act and updated in 2015 through House Bill (HB) 7069, at least one-third (1/3) of an instructional personnel’s final performance evaluation must be based on student learning growth assessed annually and measured by statewide assessments or, for subjects not measured by statewide assessments, by district assessments.
Observations	Pursuant to state statute, at least one-third (1/3) of the final performance evaluation must include indicators based upon each of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices. For instructional personnel who are not classroom teachers, evaluation criteria must be based upon indicators of the Florida Educator Accomplished Practices as defined in state statute 1012.01. Observations for teachers are centered around the seven performance standards, with direct focus on Performance Standards 2, 3, 4, and 8. For instructional support personnel and student services personnel, observations are centered around six performance standards, with direct focus on Performance Standards 2, 3, and 4. Observations may be conducted in either instructional or non-instructional settings, and may be scheduled or unscheduled visits.
Required Documentation	The Required Documentation includes specific required artifacts that provide evidence of meeting selected performance standards.
Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT)	Pursuant to state statute, the remainder of an instructional personnel’s final performance evaluation must be based on other measures of performance as determined by the district. The DPGT serves this function for Miami-Dade County Public Schools professionals.
Parental Input	Parental input is gathered through the School Climate Survey and the Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC) participation, as applicable. Professionals show examples of communication with parents as reflected on their communication evidence.

OBSERVATIONS

The Observation of Standards Forms (OSF) for Teacher, Instructional Support Personnel, and Student Services Personnel (see Part IV) are used to provide targeted feedback on professionals' work relating to the performance standards. Given the complexity of the job responsibilities of the professionals, an assessor will observe multiple standards in a formal observation. Evidence of performance standards 2, 3, 4, and 8 for classroom teachers and performance standards 2, 3, and 4 for instructional support personnel and student services personnel will be collected and noted on the Observation of Standards Form. For all observable performance standards, an assessor must make comments (evidence must include descriptive language and may be positive or negative) on the Observation of Standards Form; however, for the non-observable standards, the assessor may choose to defer comments to the Summative Performance Evaluation Form and/or Documentation Cover Sheet. For those performance standards where comments are made, the comments must be descriptive and detailed as related to the standard(s) observed. During the post-observation meeting, the professional and the assessor will discuss the observation.

No ratings are given during the post-observation meeting as assessors use multiple data sources collected throughout the year to determine ratings at the end of the school year (see page 25 “Making Summative Decisions”).

Assessors are to assess the performance standards by observing instruction, performance of students, and other applicable indicators at various times throughout the evaluation cycle. The standards that are not directly observed during the formal observation may be discussed during the post-observation meeting. Additionally, the professional's Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) can be discussed and, if necessary, modified, as a result of the post-observation meeting.

Observations may be scheduled or unscheduled but must be consistent within the school. No formal observation/evaluation shall be conducted during the first ten (10) days of student attendance or the first ten (10) days of a professional's assignment to students.

Observation Schedule

The minimum number of required observations varies by contract status (see Table 5). Language regarding contract status has been modified in alignment with the Student Success Act of 2011 (formally SB 736), a copy of which may be accessed through the link provided in Appendix D.

Table 5: Observation by Contract Status

Contract Status	Required Number of Observations a Year	Timeframe*
Probationary Contract	2	1 per semester, concluding by the end of the third grading period
Annual Contract	1	By the end of the third grading period
Professional Service Contract	1	By the end of the third grading period
Continuing Contract	1	By the end of the third grading period

*If extreme extenuating circumstances exist for not meeting the observation timeframe, the site administrator must contact the appropriate Region Center and the Labor Relations office, prior to conducting the observation. Labor Relations will communicate this request to the UTD.

*Exceptions to the timeframe may exist; refer to the current Office of Professional Standards (OPS) Manual. (Relevant sections of the OPS Manual have been included in this handbook to facilitate the FLDOE review.)

Documenting Observations

The professional and the assessor will meet to discuss the observation within ten (10) calendar days of the observation. The assessor may ask the professional to bring a copy of the lesson plan/planning document to the meeting. Professionals will have the right to present additional information/documents about what was observed and comments on the Observation of Standards Form. Any written response(s) provided by the professional shall be attached to the form and placed in the personnel file. Professionals receive a copy of the completed form from their assessor at the conclusion of the post-observation meeting.

Professionals on probationary contract status participate in a minimum of two observations (See Table 5) and in a formative evaluation in the first semester, in addition to the annual summative performance evaluation. The Formative Performance Evaluation (FPE) is completed prior to the end of the second grading period, either at the post-observation conference, or at a separate meeting. The purpose of the FPE is to provide the instructional professional with formative feedback to improve professional practice. A copy of the Observation of Standards Form (OSF) and Formative Performance Evaluation (FPE) form, if applicable, are to be provided to the professional following the post-observation conference and the formative evaluation conference.

A required observation constitutes a minimum of twenty (20) consecutive minutes. Where appropriate, the observation could last longer. The observation should cover an appropriate sample of the professional's work. Additionally, more than the minimum number of required observations may occur, as appropriate.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

The purpose of the Required Documentation (IPEGS Documentation Cover Sheet) (see page 79 Part IV) is to provide evidence of performance related to specific standards. Documentation is not required for all performance standards as other data sources may be used. The required items provide assessors with additional information they likely would not receive during an observation. Specifically, the collection of documentation provides the professional with an opportunity for self-reflection, demonstration of quality work, and a basis for two-way communication with an assessor. The emphasis is on the quality of work, not the quantity of materials presented. Specific evidence is required of all professionals to be submitted and stapled to the Documentation Cover Sheet, which serves as the transmittal. They are:

- Professional Learning
Evidence of Professional Development/Professional Growth Experiences
Provide evidence of professional development activities/professional growth experiences which document current professional learning related to instructional practice. Professional development activities include both learning and application and will have Master Plan Points (MPPs), college/university credit or continuing education units (CEUs). Professional growth experiences may not have points/credit attached, but must involve active learning and application of knowledge with a focus on development of practice and student learning. Additionally, a professional's Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) may be used as evidence of Professional Learning. Professionals maintain their own documentation of professional development/growth experiences and determine what evidence to submit. Documentation may include the Center for Professional Learning record of in-service/PD History, workshop certificates, college/university transcripts, conference certificates, or National Board Certification. Although, the professional may submit evidence of multiple professional development/growth activities, at least one must be a professional development activity from the current school year. Professionals are not required to submit evidence of Professional Learning in a specific format. The key is for the professional to provide evidence of active learning and application of knowledge that impacts practice and student learning.

- Evidence of Communication

Provide evidence of how the professional communicates with stakeholders. A sample communication log is provided on page 81 Part IV. Professionals who document contacts with stakeholders (e.g., colleagues, parents/guardians, administrators) in another format (e.g., bulleted list, narrative paragraph/well written summary or log) should share their method and/or documentation in that format. Professionals are not required to use the sample communication log. The key is for the professional to provide evidence of effective and consistent communication to the assessor.

The required documentation is used to organize the multiple data sources included in the summative evaluation. If additional information is requested for clarification, the format for that information remains at the discretion of the professional. Clarification might include additional examples or references to existing documentation and/or artifacts.

The documents are submitted to the assessor 35 calendar days prior to the last day of the school year for professionals. Assessors review the required documentation and make notes on the Documentation Cover Sheet. The assessor maintains the Documentation Cover Sheet and returns the original documents submitted, along with a completed and signed copy of the Documentation Cover Sheet, to the professional by the last day of the school year for professionals.

For reasons of confidentiality, any documents that contain personal information about individuals other than the employee are to be returned to the employee upon completion of the summative evaluation meeting or redacted, as appropriate.

PARENTAL INPUT

The purpose of parental input is to collect information that will help teachers reflect on their practice (i.e., for formative evaluation); in other words, to provide feedback directly to the employee for professional growth and development.

Parents must be given “an opportunity to have input into employee performance assessments when appropriate.”
Florida Statute §1012.34

Parental input is gathered through the use of the School Climate Survey and the Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC) participation in schools, as applicable. Professionals show evidence of communication with parents as reflected on their communication documentation. See Appendix C.

Some performance standards are best documented through observation (e.g., Performance Standard 8: Learning Environment); other standards may require additional documentation techniques (e.g., Performance Standard 5: Assessment).

Additional Documentation

An additional data source used in the IPEGS process is Deliberate Practice which allows the professional to determine an area(s) for professional growth that will improve instructional practice and have a positive impact on student learning. The Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) process is a two-phase, reflective process that must be documented annually.

- Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT)
The completed DPGT form is submitted with the other end-of-year documentations to the assessor 35 calendar days prior to the last day of the school year professionals. DPGT Guidelines are provided in Part III.

Formal evaluation of performance quality typically occurs at the summative evaluation stage, which comes at the end of the evaluation cycle (e.g., school year). The ratings for each performance standard are based on multiple sources of information and are completed only after pertinent data from all sources have been reviewed.

Note: Because learner progress data may or may not be available at the time of the summative evaluation meeting, state statute provides that the evaluator may amend an evaluation based upon assessment data from the current school year if the data become available within 90 days after the close of the school year.

INTEGRATION
OF DATA

The integrated data constitute the evidence used to determine the performance ratings for the summative evaluation for professionals (see page 93 Part IV Summative Performance Evaluation-Teacher, Instructional Support Personnel, Student Services Personnel). Further details on the rating process are provided in subsequent sections of this handbook.

Summative evaluation meetings are to be conducted by assessors no later than seven (7) calendar days prior to the last day of the school year for the professionals. Table 6 details the timeline to be followed (see page 24 IPEGS Timeline).

Modifications for Unique Teaching Conditions

Modifications to the evaluation process are made for instructional personnel in unique teaching conditions, such as professionals going on leave/returning from leave. Observations should be completed as close to the established timeline as possible in the event the professional is going on leave/returning from leave. If assessors have completed the required formal observation(s) and a professional's work assignment changes within the same worksite, assessors are not required to complete an additional formal observation.

Documentation for Instructional Support Personnel and Student Services Personnel

IPEGS is the evaluation system used for all instructional personnel, including Instructional Support Personnel (e.g., activities directors, instructional coaches, lead teachers, library/media specialists, etc.) and Student Services Personnel (e.g., art therapists, career specialists, counselors, school psychologists, etc.). However, the nature and duties of these positions differ from those of the classroom teacher. Therefore, the performance standards applicable to the appropriate evaluative process for personnel in these positions also differ. These differences are incorporated into the corresponding documents: Observation of Standards Form and the Summative Performance Evaluation Form which may be found in Part IV of the handbook. It is the responsibility of the assessor to ensure the correct documentation forms are used in this process.

Instructional Personnel New to M-DCPS

New instructional personnel participate in a district comprehensive orientation session at the beginning of the school year; otherwise, it is the responsibility of the site administrator to send new instructional personnel to IPEGS district training. The orientation consists of written and oral explanations of IPEGS. Additionally, all instructional professionals on a probationary contract status, including new instructional personnel, will participate in two (2) observations (see Table 5 on page 19) and two (2) evaluations during the probationary contract year. The first evaluation is formative for new instructional personnel and will be conducted after the first observation.

“All personnel must be fully informed of the criteria and procedures associated with the assessment process before the assessment takes place.”

Florida Statute §1012.34

If the professional transfers within M-DCPS, the documentation is to be forwarded to the receiving school/worksite administrator. At the end of an evaluation cycle, the site administrator retains the originals of Deliberate Practice Growth Target, Documentation Cover Sheet, Observation of Standards Form(s)-Teacher, Instructional Support Personnel, Student Services Personnel, Formative Performance Evaluation-Probationary Contract Teachers, Probationary Contract Instructional Support Personnel, Probationary Contract Student Services Personnel, and Summative Performance Evaluation-Teacher, Instructional Support Personnel, Student Services Personnel forms at the school/worksite. Copies of these forms and all original attachments to the documentation cover sheet are returned to the professional by the last day of the school year for the professional. Table 6 on page 24 is the IPEGS Timeline. This table delineates the timeline, activities, and tasks/documentation that must be completed during the evaluation cycle. Storage of records is as follows:

Storage of Records

- Site personnel file: completed DPGT; Documentation Cover Sheet, Observation of Standards Form(s) (as appropriate for the professional’s position); Formative Performance Evaluation (as appropriate for the probationary professional’s position) Summative Performance Evaluation (as appropriate for the professional’s position) copy and any written response(s) provided by the professional; and, if applicable, a completed Request to Review IPEGS Performance Standard Rating(s) Form.
- District Personnel Records Department: original Summative Performance Evaluation (as appropriate for the professional’s position) form to be sent according to the district’s end-of-year calendar/procedures and any written response(s) provided by the professional, and, if applicable, a completed Request to Review IPEGS Performance Standard Rating(s) Form.

All other original material/documentation is to be returned to the professional.

MAKING SUMMATIVE DECISIONS

Two major considerations apply when assessing job performance during summative evaluation:

- 1) the performance standards and
- 2) the documentation of the actual performance of the standards (student performance data, observations, required documentation).

The performance appraisal rubric in Part II provides a description of well-defined levels for each of the performance standards for instructional professionals.

The Summative Performance Evaluation (SPE) process results in a unified rating. Pursuant to state statutes 1012.34 and 1008.22., as amended in 2011 under the Student Success Act and updated in 2015 through House Bill 7069, at least one-third (1/3) of an instructional personnel's final performance evaluation must be based on student learning growth and at least one-third (1/3) must be based on professional practices. Pursuant to state statute, the remainder of an instructional personnel's final performance evaluation must be based on other measures of performance as determined by the district. The Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) serves this function for Miami-Dade County Public Schools professionals.

Therefore, in IPEGS, the final Summative Performance Evaluation includes three components. They are Learner Progress (Performance Standard 1), weighted at 34%; Professional Practices (Performance Standards 2 through 8 for Teachers or Performance Standards 2 through 7 for Instructional Support Personnel and Student Services Personnel), weighted at 50%; and the DPGT, weighted at 16%. The weight for each of the three components will be determined jointly by M-DCPS and UTD on an annual basis.

After the ratings for three IPEGS components: Learner Progress (PS 1), Professional Practices (PS 2-7 or PS 2-8), and the DPGT are determined, a Unified Summative Rating (USR) is assigned.

The annual USR range (cut scores) will be determined jointly by M-DCPS and UTD, after the Value-Added Model scores are provided by the state.

IPEGS uses a rating rubric to describe four levels of how well the standards (i.e., job duties/responsibilities) are performed on a continuum from highly effective to unsatisfactory. The use of the enables assessors to acknowledge instructional professionals who consistently exceed expectations (highly effective), identify those who meet the standard (effective), identify those who need assistance/support to meet the standard in an effective manner (developing/needs improvement), and assign the lowest level to instructional professionals who consistently do not meet expectations (unsatisfactory).

The following sections define the four levels, provide detailed information about the performance of expectations for improvement purposes, and describe the decision-making process for assessing performance. PLEASE NOTE: The sample performance indicators are provided as examples of performance relevant to the standards. Ratings are applied to individual performance standards, NOT performance indicators. Based on the evidence, the assessor determines the degree to which the performance standard is being demonstrated

The site administrator uses four levels when assessing performance of standards (i.e., highly effective, effective, developing/needs improvement, unsatisfactory). Table 7 offers general descriptions of those ratings (see page 27 Definitions of Terms Used in Rating Scale).

Who Decides on the Ratings?

The site administrator has the ultimate responsibility for ensuring that IPEGS is executed faithfully and effectively in the school/worksites. For an evaluation system to be meaningful, it must provide its users with relevant and timely feedback. Administrators, such as assistant principals, may be designated as the assessors to supervise, monitor, and assist with the multiple data source collection.

Table 7: Definitions of Terms Used in Rating Scale

Rating	Description	Performance Characteristics
Highly Effective	The professional performs at a level that consistently models initiative, raises performance through expanding knowledge, and improves individual and/or school effectiveness in a manner that is consistent with the state’s and the school district’s mission and goals.	High-quality performance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ exceeds the requirements contained in the standard as expressed in the evaluation criteria ◆ consistently seeks opportunities to learn and apply new skills ◆ consistently exhibits behaviors that have a positive impact on learners and the school climate
Effective	The professional performs in a manner that demonstrates competence and expertise in meeting the standard in a manner that is consistent with the state’s and the school district’s mission and goals.	Effective performance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ meets the requirements contained in the job description as expressed in the evaluation criteria ◆ demonstrates willingness to learn and apply new skills ◆ exhibits behaviors that have a positive impact on learners and the school climate
*Developing/ Needs Improvement	The professional needs assistance/support to meet the standard in an effective manner that is consistent with the state’s and the school district’s mission and goals.	Improving/Developing performance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ attempts to meet the requirements contained in the job description as expressed in the evaluation criteria ◆ at times demonstrates willingness to learn and apply new skills ◆ inconsistently exhibits behaviors that have a positive impact on learners and the school climate
Unsatisfactory	The professional consistently performs below the established standard or in a manner that is inconsistent with the state’s and the school district’s mission and goals.	Poor-quality performance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ fails to meet the requirements contained in the standard as expressed in the evaluation criteria ◆ fails to demonstrate willingness to learn and apply new skills ◆ consistently exhibits behaviors that have a negative impact on learners and the school climate

* Pursuant to the Student Success Act, created in F.S. 1012.34, a rating of “Developing” may only be assigned to professionals in their first three (3) years of teaching.

Performance Rubric

The performance rubric is a tool to guide the site administrators' rating of professional performance for the summative evaluation.

The rating for IPEGS Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress is assigned to the instructional professional in accordance with the applicable student performance data and rating guidelines. The applicable data sources and processes for this measure are determined by state statutes.

A performance rubric is provided for the remaining standards: Performance Standards two (2) through eight (8) for teachers; Performance Standards two (2) through seven (7) for instructional support personnel; and Performance Standards two (2) through seven (7) for student services personnel. Part II of the handbook includes rubrics related to each of these performance standards as they apply to teachers (Section II-A), instructional support personnel (Section II-B), and student services personnel (Section II-C). The performance rubric is a behavioral summary scale that describes performance levels for each performance standard. It states the measure of performance expected of professionals for each standard and provides a description of what a rating entails. The rating rubric is applied for the summative evaluation.

Note: The rating description for “effective” is the actual performance standard.

Site administrators make decisions about performance standards two (2) through eight (8) for teachers and standards two (2) through seven (7) for instructional support personnel and student services personnel based on all available evidence. The site administrator rates a professional's performance for the summative evaluation after collecting information through multiple data sources (e.g., observation(s), required documentation, submissions by the professional, and other relevant sources).

In preparation for the summative evaluation meeting, the site administrator, in collaboration with the assessor(s), applies the four-level rubric to evaluate performance on all professional standards [see Summative Performance Evaluation forms in Part IV for teachers (Section IV-A), instructional support personnel (Section IV-B), and student services personnel (Section IV-C)]. The results of the evaluation are discussed with the professional at a summative evaluation meeting. The performance rubrics guide assessors in assessing the degree to which the performance standard is being demonstrated. They are provided to increase reliability among assessors and to help teachers to focus on ways to enhance their professional practice. As an example, the rubric for Performance Standard 7 follows:

PERFORMANCE STANDARD 7: PROFESSIONALISM

Highly Effective The professional's work is exceptional, in addition to meeting the standard	Effective The description is the actual performance standard	Developing/Needs Improvement	Unsatisfactory
The teacher consistently demonstrates a high level of professionalism, contributes to the professional growth of others, and/or assumes a leadership role within the learning community.	The teacher demonstrates behavior consistent with legal, ethical, and professional standards and engages in continuous professional growth.	The teacher often does not display professional judgment or only occasionally participates in professional growth.	The teacher fails to adhere to legal, ethical, or professional standards, including all requirements for professional growth.

Completing the Summative Report

Prior to the summative evaluation meeting with the professional, the assessor reviews the multiple data sources that have been collected (e.g., observation form(s), student growth data, if available, etc.) and submitted (e.g., items specified as required documentation). The assessor checks the appropriate boxes on the applicable Summative Performance Evaluation form to indicate which items were reviewed. Additionally, the assessor may consider additional data sources provided by the professional. When other data sources are used, the assessor may note their use either by writing the data source in the line next to “Other” on the first page of the form and/or in the “Comments” section under a particular performance standard. During the summative evaluation meeting, the results of the evaluation are discussed with the professional.

The professional and the assessor conducting the summative evaluation meeting initial each page and sign the applicable Summative Performance Evaluation form to indicate that the meeting occurred. The site administrator determines the ratings and indicates whether the professional is recommended or not recommended for continued employment by signing the form. A copy of this form is provided to the professional. The site administrator submits the original form to the Personnel Records Department in accordance with the established district calendar/procedures.

Steps for the Summative Performance Evaluation (SPE) Process

- Step 1: Professional submits required end-of-year documentation by the submission date. The professional may include any pertinent and relevant evidence for consideration in the SPE process.
- Step 2: Assessor reviews submitted documentation.
- Step 3: Site administrator, in collaboration with the assessor(s), applies the four-level rubric to evaluate performance on performance standards 2 through 8 for teachers, performance standards 2 through 7 for instructional support personnel or performance standards 2 through 7 for student services personnel, as applicable. This review is based on multiple data sources in preparation for the Summative Performance Evaluation Meeting. This includes reviewing learner progress data for IPEGS Performance Standard 1. It is important to note that, if all relevant learner progress data are not available at the time of the Summative Performance Evaluation Meeting, pursuant to state statute, “The evaluator may amend an evaluation based upon assessment data from the current school year if the data becomes available within 90 days after the close of the school year.” The Summative Performance Evaluation will be finalized once the applicable student data becomes available.

Step 4: A summative evaluation meeting between the assessor and the professional is held to discuss and determine if the results of the evaluation accurately reflect the professional’s performance. The professional and the assessor initial each page, sign and date the evaluation form, unless the following exists: During the discussion, if clarification of a rating(s) is needed, the professional may present additional information. Additional information, as presented during the summative evaluation meeting, is shared with the site administrator. The assessor, if not the site administrator, and the professional neither initial nor sign the Summative Performance Evaluation form when new information is presented. This new information must be provided to the site administrator for consideration.

Step 5: The site administrator makes the determination of the professional’s rating(s) and recommendation for continued employment. The site administrator signs and dates the evaluation form. When additional information is submitted, it is reviewed by the site administrator prior to the determination of the final rating(s). This recommendation may be provisional if, as noted in Step 3, student performance data for Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress are not received at the time of the Summative Performance Evaluation Meeting. All parties initial each page, sign and date the Summative Performance Evaluation form which denotes that a summative evaluation meeting occurred.

If the professional disagrees with the rating(s), a written response may be provided by the instructional professional and attached to the Summative Performance Evaluation form of the professional. Additionally, when there is disagreement between the professional and the assessor regarding the ratings, the professional may request a review of up to three (3) performance standard(s) ratings for the current evaluation cycle. Procedures for this Review of Ratings process and the Request to Review IPEGS Performance Standard Rating(s) Form (FM-7578 or FM-7579 or FM-7580) are included in Appendix B. However, a professional may provide both a written response and a request to review the IPEGS rating(s) in disagreement.

For procedural appeals to the IPEGS process, refer to the M-DCPS/UTD collective bargaining agreement.

Step 6: The original Summative Performance Evaluation form and the written response, if applicable, is/are submitted to the Personnel Records Department in accordance with the established district calendar/procedures.

Step 7: The professional will receive a completed copy of all forms and documents related to the IPEGS Summative Performance Evaluation by the last day of the school year for the professional. These include:

- Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) Form
- Documentation Cover Sheet (original documents attached to the Documentation Cover Sheet are returned to the professional)
- Summative Performance Evaluation (SPE) form

Note: Professionals on probationary contract status participate in a minimum of two observations (See Table 5) and in a formative evaluation in the first semester, in addition to the annual summative performance evaluation. A copy of the Observation of Standards Form (OSF) and Formative Performance Evaluation (FPE) form, if applicable, are to be provided to the professional following the post-observation conference and the formative evaluation conference.

IMPROVING PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE

EVALUATION AND SUPPORT GUIDELINES

The Student Success Act of 2011 (formerly SB 736) designates evaluation and support guidelines for professionals that are differentiated by contract status (i.e., Probationary, Annual, Professional Services, and Continuing). The procedures below meet the requirements of the Florida Statute related to notifying a professional of unsatisfactory performance.

Effective teachers seek professional development opportunities that are applicable to them and will help improve the quality of their instruction. The professional development and growth opportunities may be sought out in order to build new knowledge, correct deficiencies, or gain insight about effective instruction and teaching practices. Professional development encompasses all types of facilitative learning opportunities. Effective teachers engage in continuous reflection and growth to refine their teaching craft.

In instances where professional growth is required, suggested, or requested, a professional will be provided informal support. Resources for support may include face-to-face activities, study groups, educator-to-educator collaboration such as peer coaching and professional learning communities, participation in action research, completion of online coursework, collaborative planning, lesson study groups, peer assistance, etc. As schools expand their job-embedded professional learning opportunities for instructional personnel the members of each school's Professional Learning Support Team (PLST) may play a role in facilitating professional growth opportunities. PLSTs, which are currently in place at each school site, include an Administrator, Professional Development Liaison, and two Teacher Leaders. The PLST may support all professional growth opportunities taking place at the school site.

Required Support

The Unified Summative Rating (USR) is less than “effective”

(The USR includes three components: VAM, Professional Practices, and Deliberate Practice Growth Target) Pursuant to state statute, the remainder of an instructional personnel's final performance evaluation must be based on other measures of performance as determined by the district. The DPGT serves this function for Miami-Dade County Public Schools professionals.

Instructional Personnel receiving “developing/needs improvement” on their Final Summative Performance Evaluation will engage in professional growth opportunities identified by the professional and the site administrator/designee without the requirement of an “unsatisfactory” IPEGS observation.

Suggested Support

Administrator recommends an area for growth

The recommendation may be prompted by an informal observation (walk-through, review of available data, etc.). The professional will participate in professional growth opportunities mutually agreed upon by the professional and the site administrator/designee. This does not replace the Support Dialogue (SD) process.

Professional receives a change of assignment (Mid-Year or Year-to-Year)

When a professional is notified of a change in assignment, the professional may engage in professional growth opportunities and/or professional development, the site administrator/designee may provide assistance to the professional (i.e., mentor buddy, grade level chairperson, department chairperson, professional development course offerings, etc.).

Requested Support

Professional identifies an area for growth

Through reflection, a professional identifies an area for professional growth and requests support and assistance. Professional growth activities related to the chosen area may be determined by selecting a relevant course utilizing the district's professional development management system, eliciting advice and expertise from the PLST and/or collaborating with the administrative/leadership team; or any other growth activity deemed relevant to the applicable area of concentration.

Every effort should be made to complete professional growth opportunities and/or professional development activities at least 35 calendar days prior to the last day of the school year for professionals.

Support Dialogue

In instances where evidence from a formal IPEGS observation indicates that a professional's performance on a specific standard is at the unsatisfactory level, then formal assistance and support must be provided. Two (2) formal tools to improve performance are provided in IPEGS. The first is the Support Dialogue (SD), a school/worksite-level discussion between the administrator and the professional. A Support Dialogue begins the formal process of providing assistance and support when a professional's performance is unsatisfactory. However, Support Dialogue is neither required nor appropriate to address compliance issues pertaining to Performance Standard 7: Professionalism regarding rules, punctuality and attendance, after appropriate progressive discipline has been applied. For all other aspects of Performance Standard 7: Professionalism, the IPEGS evaluation processes/procedures will apply. The second formal tool is the Improvement Plan, which is more structured and meets the requirements of the Florida Statute related to notifying a professional of unsatisfactory performance. The Improvement Plan follows a Support Dialogue when the professional's job performance has not improved within the Support Dialogue time frame.

Support Dialogue is the first type of formal assistance and support used to improve performance. When evidence from a formal observation indicates that a professional's performance is unsatisfactory on one or more standard(s), then a SD is initiated. The SD is a collegial discussion. Its purpose is to identify the performance standard(s) where the level of performance is unsatisfactory, to discuss various ways to bring the performance on the standard(s) up to an effective level, and to determine what types of assistance, support, and resources would be appropriate to help raise the level of performance on the standard(s). As a result of this discussion both parties will agree upon which supportive activities will be implemented, what resources will be provided, and what professional development would be appropriate. This agreement will also include the specific parties responsible for the various aspects of the support to be provided, as well as the professional's responsibilities in participating in the supportive activities or professional development.

Within ten (10) calendar days of an initial observation, a Post Observation meeting is held; if, as a result of the observation, the collective evidence indicates that the professional requires support in meeting the standards, the Support Dialogue (SD) Meeting Notification Form is issued. The professional is notified of a scheduled SD meeting via the Support Dialogue (SD) Meeting Notification Form which must be issued no later than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the SD meeting. Within twelve (12) calendar days of the initial observation, the SD meeting is held. At this SD meeting, the professional has the right to union representation and/or may request a peer support professional who is mutually agreed upon by the professional and the assessor. At the conclusion of this SD meeting, the assessor will provide the completed and signed Establishing Learning Plan of Action for IPEGS Support Dialogue form. The SD process is intended to be completed within a twenty-one (21) calendar day period, while the professional receives support and implements changes in his/her performance. After the twenty-one (21) calendar day period has elapsed, the same assessor must observe the professional again. The subsequent observation may not occur until the agreed upon support activities have been provided by the assessor. Although not required, it is recommended that the subsequent observation be conducted during the same class/period/event as the initial observation.

The following are sample guiding questions for the SD conversation.

Sample Prompts for the SD Conversation between the assessor and the instructional professional

The assessor asks:

Regarding the issue or concern of _____ (tell specific concern):

1. Tell me about this issue.
2. What challenges have you encountered in addressing _____?
3. What strategies have you tried to implement to address this issue?
4. What professional development have you taken to address this issue?
5. What professional development might help you address this issue?
6. What resources or support can I arrange that might assist in addressing this issue?

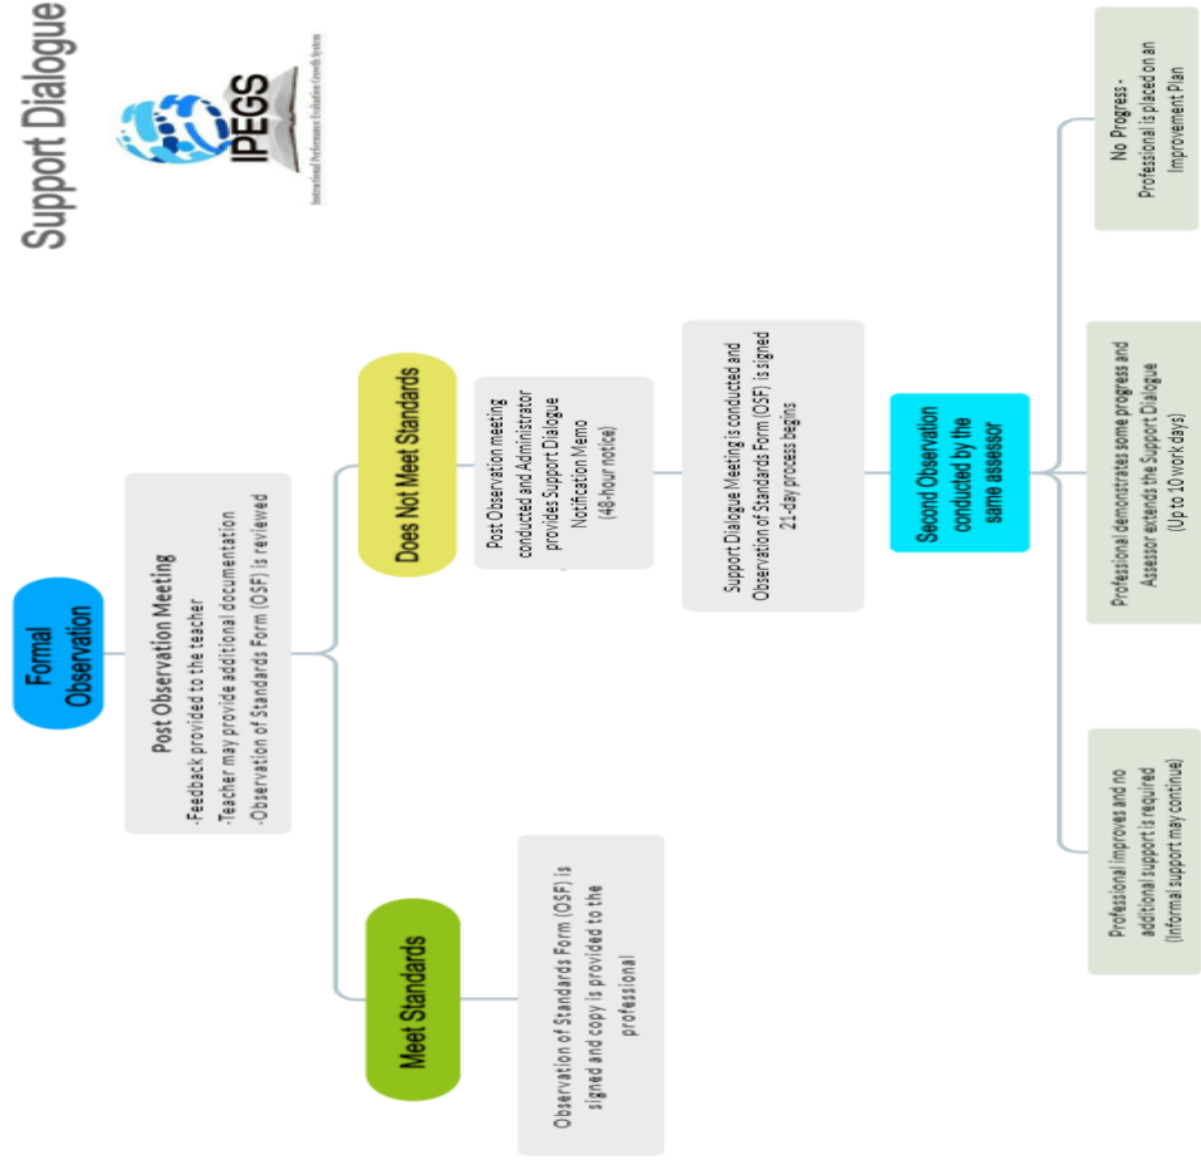

The assessor shares some support ideas.

(These may include the following: professional development/professional growth activities, shadowing, mentoring, peer review and/or modeling, support from the school site/region center and/or district curriculum specialists).

The assessor asks:

1. What do you think of these ideas?
2. What ideas/suggestions do you have to improve your performance?

Professionals develop and improve their job performance over time and with assistance and support. Some professionals will need more time to develop and improve their performance to ensure it reaches an effective standard of performance. Therefore, a professional may be considered developing/needs improvement for more than one evaluation cycle. However, to assess a professional as developing/needs improvement for more than one evaluation cycle, the professional must have been provided evidence in a timely manner throughout the evaluation cycle to allow the professional to seek and take advantage of opportunities to receive assistance and support for the purpose of improving his/her performance.

Any subsequent observation to an unsatisfactory observation must start at the beginning of the class and last for the complete lesson. However, for classes extending beyond the standard elementary/secondary scheduled class/subject (e.g., block schedules, 3-hour auto mechanics, etc.), the assessor must observe a lesson from the beginning of the class and remain for a minimum of one (1) hour.

Although not required, it is recommended that the subsequent observation be conducted during the same class/period/event as the initial observation. The following chart, which is the Support Dialogue process, delineates Step 1 of 2 for improving professional performance.

Step 1 to Improve Professional Performance
Probationary Contract/Annual Contract (AC)/
Professional Service Contract (PSC)/Continuing Contract (CC)

Support Dialogue
Purpose	For professionals who are in need of additional support, SD is initiated.

Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional improves and no additional support is required or support continues through the informal professional assistance and support process, or • Professional has demonstrated some progress and the assessor may extend the time of the SD (for up to ten (10) work days), or • No progress and performance is unsatisfactory — the professional is placed on an Improvement Plan (IP). * Although not required, it is recommended that the subsequent observation be conducted during the same class/period/event as the initial observation.

The desired outcome for engaging in SD is for the professional’s practice to improve. However, in the event that limited improvements in performance have been made, the assessor may extend the timeline of the Support Dialogue for up to ten (10) additional work days. If the professional’s performance is unsatisfactory, the professional must be placed on an Improvement Plan (IP). Once placed on an IP, the professional will have a 90-Calendar Day Probation period to demonstrate that identified deficiencies have been corrected.

IMPROVEMENT PLAN (IP)
90-CALENDAR DAY PROBATION

If an assessor and a professional have completed Step 1, Support Dialogue, and performance in a specific standard(s) remains unsatisfactory, Step 2 is initiated. Step 2 is the implementation of a 90-Calendar Day Probation/Improvement Plan (IP). Ideally, the desired outcome of an IP is to improve the professional’s performance on a standard(s) to an effective level. If the professional’s performance on the identified performance standard(s) improves to a developing or needs improvement or effective level, then the process is completed. If the professional’s performance on the identified performance standard(s) does not improve to a developing or needs improvement or effective level, and continues to be unsatisfactory, the professional will not be recommended for continued employment. The following chart, which is the Improvement Plan (IP) process, delineates Step 2 of 2 in improving professional performance.

Step 2 to Improve Professional Performance

(See Appendix F).

An IP may be implemented at any point during the year provided that the professional has had a SD and a minimum of two (2) observations. The IP is designed to guide a professional in addressing areas of concern through targeted assistance with additional resources. If a professional’s performance is being observed by the site administrator designee, he/she consults with the site administrator on the need for an IP. During the Conference-for-the-Record (CFR), the site administrator, the assessor (if different), the professional, and the union representative (if applicable) may advance suggestions to the IP. At a subsequent meeting, when the summary of the CFR is signed, the IP will be explained and signed. (The CFR meeting, CFR Summary meeting, and the IP initiation must be completed with signatures within ten (10) calendar days). The day after the IP is signed by the site administrator and the professional, the official start of the 90-Calendar Day Probation begins and documents are forwarded to the Office of Professional Standards.

90-Calendar Day Probation/Improvement Plan (IP)

Instructional personnel whose performance is unsatisfactory are placed on a 90-Calendar Day Probation during which the Improvement Plan (IP) is implemented. The following charts delineate the procedures that are implemented as a result of unsatisfactory performance on one or more standard(s) for the annual contract, professional service contract, and continuing contract professionals, respectively.

CONTRACT STATUS	PERSON(S) RESPONSIBLE	PROCEDURES
	Professional Office of Professional Standards/ Professional/ UTD or Other Representative	Professionals may use provisions specified in Article XXI of the M-DCPS/UTD contract to address compliance issues. The professional may request a transfer to another appropriate position with a different supervising administrator. However, a transfer does not extend the period for correcting performance standard(s) deficiencies. Additionally, state statute 1012.335 provides that “a principal may refuse to accept the placement or transfer of instructional personnel by the district school superintendent to his or her school unless the instructional personnel has a performance rating of effective or highly effective under state statute 1012.34.” If the professional wishes to contest the Superintendent's recommendation, the professional must, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receipt of the Superintendent's recommendation, submit to the School Board clerk a written request for a hearing. The Representative, upon the professional’s request, may meet with personnel from the Office of Professional Standards to review all pertinent documents and administrative actions relative to the observation(s) and IP procedures.

In accordance with the Student Success Act (formerly SB 736) and Florida Statute §1012.34, instructional personnel hired on or after July 1, 2011, are awarded a “probationary contract” for a period of one school year upon initial employment in a school district regardless of previous employment in another school district or state. Probationary contract employees may resign without breach of contract or be dismissed without cause. This “Probationary Contract Status” is not to be confused with procedures for the 90-Calendar Day probationary period IP for professionals who hold an Annual Contract or a Professional Service Contract described in this section.

Final Summative Performance Evaluation Rating Results:

Instructional Personnel receiving developing or needs improvement on their Final Summative Performance Evaluation will engage in professional growth opportunities identified by the professional and the site administrator/designee. This will occur without the requirement of an IPEGS Observation indicating below effective on one or more IPEGS Performance Standards.

Instructional Personnel receiving unsatisfactory on their Final Summative Performance Evaluation will be placed on an Improvement Plan (IP). This will occur without the requirement of a Support Dialogue (SD) indicating that the professional did not remediate.

The district school superintendent shall annually notify the department of any instructional personnel or school administrators who receive two (2) consecutive unsatisfactory evaluations through the regular evaluation reporting process established by the Florida Department of Education.

PART II

PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

II-A: Teacher

Teachers are evaluated based on the following three components: IPEGS Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress, Professional Practices (IPEGS Performance Standards 2 through 8), and other indicators of performance, including a Deliberate Practice Growth Target. Ratings on the performance standards are determined using the performance appraisal rubrics applicable to each standard; these are described in this section. The chart below provides information regarding the measurement of performance on IPEGS Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress. The performance indicators that are provided in this section for IPEGS Performance Standards 2 through 8 are examples of activities that may address the standard.

PERFORMANCE STANDARD 1: LEARNER PROGRESS

Student Services Personnel are evaluated based on the following three components: IPEGS Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress, Professional Practices (IPEGS Performance Standards 2 through 7), and other indicators of performance, including a Deliberate Practice Growth Target. Ratings on the performance standards are determined using the performance appraisal rubrics applicable to each standard; these are described in this section. The chart below provides information regarding the measurement of performance on IPEGS Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress. The performance indicators that are provided in this section for IPEGS Performance Standards 2 through 7 are examples of activities that may address the standard.

PERFORMANCE STANDARD 1: LEARNER PROGRESS: 34% OF TOTAL POSSIBLE POINTS

In IPEGS, for the 2017-2018 school year, a 34% weighting applies to Performance Standard 1: Learner Progress.

Weightings are subject to annual negotiations between M-DCPS and UTD.

PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL RATINGS: 34% OF TOTAL POSSIBLE POINTS

Highly Effective	Effective	Developing/Needs Improvement	Unsatisfactory

PART III

Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) Process

Miami-Dade County Public Schools

DELIBERATE PRACTICE GROWTH TARGET PROCESS

GUIDELINES

Pursuant to Florida Statute 1012.98 “each school principal may establish and maintain an individual professional development plan for each instructional employee assigned to the school as a seamless component to the school improvement plans.” The individual professional development plan must:

- be related to specific performance data for the students to whom the teacher is assigned;
- define the in-service objective(s) and specific measurable improvements expected in student performance as a result of the in-service activity; and
- include an evaluation component that determines the effectiveness of the professional development plan.

Additionally, the Student Success Act (formerly (SB 736) requires that results of the instructional professional’s annual evaluation from the prior year be used to inform professional development planning for the current year.

The Deliberate Practice Growth Target (DPGT) process has been developed to meet the statutory requirements as well as allow the professional to determine areas for professional growth that will improve instructional practice and have a positive impact on student learning.

The DPGT form is to be completed by the end of the first grading period or within the first forty-five days of a professional’s employment at the work location for professionals who start after the beginning of the school year. The professional may revise the DPGT during the school year as needed. The revisions must be mutually agreed upon by the instructional professional and the assessor.

Note: DPGT activities may include either professional development activities or professional growth experiences and may be based on either quantitative or qualitative measures.

Professional development activities include both learning and application. Professional development activities shall primarily focus on subject content and teaching methods and will have Master Plan Points (MPPs), college/university credit or continuing education units (CEUs).

Possible areas of focus for professional development activities might include:

- Next Generation Sunshine State Standards/Florida Standards or Subject Area Content
- Instructional Strategies/Pedagogy
- Technology
- Assessment and Data Analysis
- Classroom Management
- Parental Involvement
- School Safety

Professional growth experiences may not have points/credit attached, but must involve active learning and application of knowledge with a focus on development of practice and student learning.

Professional growth experiences might include:

- book study groups
- peer coaching
- professional learning communities
- participation in action research
- completion of online coursework
- collaborative planning
- lesson study groups

Although the DPGT process requires professionals to document only one professional development activity or professional growth experience, professionals may engage in multiple growth opportunities to improve instructional practice and have a positive impact on student learning.

The DPGT Rating Rubric below will be used for the 2017-2018 school year. Future modifications and assignment of points will be jointly determined annually during collective bargaining between M-DCPS and UTD.

2017-2018 Deliberate Practice Growth Target Rubric

DPGT Reflection and Development Phase

Phase	Complete	In Progress
DPGT Development	The professional has completed the DPGT Development Phase and the planning conversation has occurred. Points: 5.6	The professional is in the process of developing a DPGT and/or awaiting the DPGT planning conversation. Points: 0

DPGT Reflection and Outcome Phase

Trace the implementation of your DPGT throughout the school year. Include information about how you reflected on your plan of action, what information you utilized to determine the impact of your professional learning on student growth, whether or not you made any adjustments to the implementation, and how you would describe the final impact (or end result) of your professional growth on student learning.

Phase	Meets	Partially Meets	Does Not Meet
DPGT Outcome	The professional successfully implements the DPGT and the impact statement includes thoughtful reflection, evidence of information used to monitor progress of the DPGT, explanation of any necessary adjustments, and an analysis of both the individual's professional growth and how it impacts student learning. Points: 10.4	The professional implements the DPGT, but the impact statement is inadequate because it is missing one or more of the required elements: thoughtful reflection, monitoring information, adjustments, or it is missing clear evidence of the expected impact of the individual's professional growth on student learning. Points: 4	The professional's impact statement is missing or does not reflect implementation of the DPGT. Points: 0

APPENDIX A

Using Student Assessment Results for Teacher Evaluation in 2016-2017: District Proposal

It is the goal of the District to evaluate teachers fairly and appropriately. To that end, the District will utilize all sources of student assessment data available.

Linking of Student Assessment Results to Teachers

Only the results of students who were in the same school in both October and February FTE periods will be included in calculations. In most cases, the linkage between teachers and students will be based on the teachers' schedules as of February of a particular school year. The exception to that will be made for certain semester courses (for example, AP Government), in which cases both October and February FTE periods will be used. Teachers will have the opportunity to review and approve student rosters during both October and February FTE periods. These rosters will be used to link teachers to student assessment results.

Group 1. Teachers of Subjects and Grade Levels Covered by the Established Statewide, Districtwide, or National/International Assessments (Core Assessments)

Teacher-level outcomes will be determined based on student results on the following assessments:

- FSA Reading in grades 4-10 – Florida VAM
- FSA Mathematics in grades 4-8 – Florida VAM
- Algebra EOC in grades 8-9 – Florida VAM
- All other Statewide EOC Assessments – District Covariance Adjustment Model
- FCAT 2.0 Science in grades 5, 8 – District Covariance Adjustment Model
- SAT-10 in grades K-2 – District Covariance Adjustment Model
- FSA Reading and Mathematics in grade 3 – District Covariance Adjustment Model
- Certain AP exams with at least 50 student results Districtwide – District Covariance Adjustment Model
- Other AP exams as well as IB, and AICE in high school with at least 50 student results Districtwide – District Achievement/Learning Gains Model
- FSAA Reading and Mathematics – District Achievement/Learning Gains Model
- Industry Certification exams assessing at least 70% of the content coverage of a specific course (depending on the availability of results prior to the required state submission)– District Achievement/Learning Gains Model

August 31, 2017

For most teachers of grades and subjects with assessments described in this section, the student results will be converted to points for each grade level and subject area separately and then combined. Grade levels will be combined when using the results of AP, IB, AICE, and Industry Certification exams.

Group 2. Teachers of Other Subject Areas and Grade Levels

For teachers of grade levels and subject areas not listed above, the reading/ELA results of students in their classrooms will be used. These will be the outcomes from the SAT-10 for students in grades K-2, FSA for students in grades 3-10, or College Board SAT, ACT, or PERT in grades 11-12. For ELA outcomes of students in grades 4-10, the results of the Florida VAM will be used. For all other grade levels, the outcome from the District Covariance Adjustment Model will be used. For most teachers of grades and subjects with assessments described in this section, the student results will be converted to points for each grade level and subject area separately and then combined. Grade levels will be combined when using the results of the College Board SAT, ACT, and PERT exams.

Converting the Assessment Results to Points for Teachers in Groups 1 and 2

There are three models that are used to calculate teacher points on the student academic growth component of the teacher evaluation: Florida VAM, District Covariance Adjustment Model, and District Achievement/Learning Gains Model.

Florida VAM

The State DOE provides the 3-year aggregated VAM results for teachers of ELA (grades 4-10) and mathematics (grades 4-8). These 3-year results may be used in the District's teacher evaluation process only if a teacher has outcomes for the current evaluation year. In addition, the State DOE provides the Algebra 1 VAM results for grades 8 and 9. These teacher VAM outcomes include teachers' VAM category, which is determined in accordance with the State Board of Education rule 6A-5.0411. These categories will be converted to categories as follows:

- Unsatisfactory – Category 1*
- Developing/Needs improvement – Category 2
- Effective – Category 3
- Highly Effective – Category 4.

*The District will apply a safeguard to all affected teachers as explained later.

August 31, 2017

APPENDIX A (Cont'd.) (Page 3 of 7)

District Covariance Adjustment Model

The District Covariance Adjustment Model is a multiple linear regression model created for each combination of grade level and assessment. In the model, the students' test scores are used as an outcome and students' test scores at the end of the prior school year (or at the beginning of the current school year in a case of students in grade K) are used as covariates. For most outcome measures, direct academic pretests (such as SAT-10 reading in grade 1 serving as a predictor for SAT reading results in grade 2) are available. For others, related academic pretests are available (Algebra 1 EOC as a predictor for Geometry EOC Assessment results, for example). In some cases, only the pretests that can be described as "cognitive predictors" are available (such as the College Board's PSAT as a predictor for certain AP results). Even in these cases, the inclusion of such cognitive predictors in the covariance-adjusted model helps to adjust the outcomes for differences in initial levels of learning and cognitive abilities across classrooms compared.

Certain student demographic characteristics are used as covariates as well. A relative age indicator is used to adjust the outcomes for retained students. In addition, gifted status, status of a student as an English language learner (ELL), status of a student having any identified primary exceptionality other than gifted (SPED status), and school attendance are used as covariates. The use of covariates serves as an attempt to "level the playing field" for teachers who had different students beginning a school year at different achievement levels.

Once the model is run, the outcome score predicted by the model is determined. Then, for each student a residual score is calculated as the difference between the actual end-of-year assessment score and the model-predicted score. These residuals are aggregated to the teacher level. In addition, standard errors of these mean residuals are found. The teacher-level mean residuals and their standard errors are used to assign points to teachers in the following way.

First, the VAM Ratio is calculated as the result of dividing a teacher's mean residual by its Standard Error. Then the categories will be assigned as follows:

- If VAM Ratio < -3 , assign Category 1,
- If $-3 \leq$ VAM Ratio < -1 , assign Category 2,
- If $-1 \leq$ VAM Ratio ≤ 2 , assign Category 3,
- If VAM Ratio > 2 , assign Category 4.

District Achievement/Learning Gains Model

This model uses the following outcomes: a percentage of students scoring proficient* on FSAA, a percentage of students "passing" the AP (for certain AP tests not used in the District Covariance Adjustment Model), IB, or AICE examination, or a percentage of students passing the Industry Certification exam.

August 31, 2017

* Learning gains on FSAA are not available for the 2016-2017 academic year because the FLDOE has not yet determined a methodology for calculating learning gains.

For each affected teacher, the outcome will be converted to a VAM ratio by finding the difference between the teacher's percentage of students scoring proficient (on FSAA) or passing an examination (for other outcomes in that model) and the average of all such percentages and then dividing that difference by the Standard Error associated with the teacher's percentage. For AP, IB, and AICE outcomes this will be done within each of the broadly defined areas, such as Science, Social Science, etc. The VAM Ratios will be converted to categories as described above.

A summary of the models is described in the table below.

Aggregation of Categories/Points

Once the categories resulting from all three models are found for all teachers, they will be aggregated by calculating the weighted average of all categories with the numbers of student assessment results as weights. Subsequently, this average will be converted to points depending on the weight of the student academic growth component within the teacher evaluation system.

Group 3. Instructional Personnel with Schoolwide or Districtwide Responsibilities

For instructional personnel with schoolwide responsibilities, the schoolwide points will be used. These will be calculated as the average number of points of all Group 1 teachers in a school, based on all available student assessment results discussed previously. For instructional personnel with Districtwide responsibilities, the Districtwide points will be used. These will be calculated as the average number of points of all Group 1 teachers in the District.

Special Considerations

- If the total number of student assessment results used for calculation of points is less than 18, then the aggregated number of points will be compared with the schoolwide number of points and the larger of the two numbers will be assigned.
- Instructional Personnel who may have scheduled courses, such as Office Aide, will not be evaluated on these courses (such courses will be determined mutually with UTD) – but will be considered as having schoolwide responsibilities. Teachers of AP courses whose students take both an AP assessment and an EOC assessment (for example, US History) will be evaluated based on student results on ONLY the AP assessment.

In addition, the following safeguards will be used:

Parental Input/Climate Survey Information

Parental input is gathered through the use of the School Climate Survey, and Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC) participation in schools, as applicable. Professionals must submit evidence of communication with parents as reflected on their communication log and on occasion specific parental input may be appropriate. The communication log data is compiled in the format preferred by the professional to document contact with parents/guardians. For evaluation consideration, professionals may include parental feedback to demonstrate positive collaborative relationships with students' families to increase student achievement, reflect on their performance, and/or show support of quality work.

Climate Survey Information

M-DCPS uses three climate surveys to solicit feedback from learners, parents, and staff. All three surveys request demographic information. Respondents read a phrase and indicate their level of agreement (i.e., strongly agree, agree, undecided/unknown, disagree, strongly disagree). The last question on each form asks the respondent to give the school a letter grade (i.e., A, B, C, D, F) for the overall quality of the school.

School Climate Survey – Parent Form has 35 items. Below are sample questions from the parent survey (the actual item number from the sample survey precedes each statement):

My child's school...

1. ...is safe and secure.
4. ...maintains high academic standards.

My child's teachers...

9. ...are friendly and easy to work with.
13. ...are knowledgeable and understand their subject matter.
15. ...do their best to include me in matters directly affecting my child's progress in school.

District and school results can be found at drs.dadeschools.net/SchoolClimateSurvey/SCS.asp
