The Right Start New Teacher Support Program

Anne Arundel County Public Schools THE RIGHT START, New Teacher Support Program, assists teachers in their transition into the education profession. Through a series of orientation sessions, seminars, symposiums, and mentor services, teachers new to the profession and to AACPS are supported in a variety of ways. New teachers have the opportunity to:

- attend an intensive, three day New Teacher Orientation Program, focusing on AACPS Best Practices and on AACPS Policies, held at both a central location and at the work site;
- learn about instruction, classroom management, character education, etc from nationally recognized educators;
- participate at seminars on topics such as Classroom Management, Cooperative Discipline, and Instructional Strategies for Student Success;
- collaborate with other teachers and teacher leaders at Saturday Symposiums focusing on topics such as:
 - Closing the Achievement Gap,
 - Planning Instruction for a Variety of Learners,
 - Time Management,
 - Working with Special Needs Students,
 - Using Data to Plan Instruction,
 - Brain-based Learning Strategies, etc.
 - Becoming Culturally Proficient

As an integral component of this program, Right Start Advisors coach new teachers to become
