Fort Wayne Community Schools: Substitute Teacher

Job Description

This is a substitute position.

Standard assignments are 8 hours per day.

In general, schedules for assignments will be as follows:

Elementary School: 7:15 am - 3:15 pm

Middle School: 7:10 am - 3:10 pm

High School: 8:20 am - 4:20 pm

Schedules may vary from the times noted above for certain schools and for weather delays.

Substitute teachers with an Associate's degree are paid a flat rate of $110.00 per day for a full day assignment.

Substitute teachers with a minimum of 60 credit hours towards a teaching degree in either elementary, secondary or special education are paid a flat rate of $110.00 per day for a full day assignment.

Substitute teachers with a Bachelor's degree are paid a flat rate of $115.00 per day for a full day assignment.

Substitute teachers working in long term assignments (more than 15 consecutive days) may earn a higher daily rate depending on licensing and level of education.

Substitute teachers are encouraged to work a minimum of 8 assignments per month during the school year. Substitute teachers are not limited in the number of assignments accepted each week.

The most successful substitute teachers are:

1. Flexible and adaptable to different classroom settings.
2. Passionate about student success.
3. Willing to support the staffing needs of the district and learn new skills.
4. Able to follow instructions and ask for support when needed.
5. Diligent in maintaining communication with the Substitute Office regarding assignments and availability.
