TPGES Summative Evaluation Process

Published: 7/31/2014 4:46 PM

Principals and teachers have been actively engaged in many aspects of the PGES pilot throughout the year. The final component of the Pilot is for principals to complete a summative evaluation on each of the teachers who have participated in the Pilot.

Summative Evaluation Process Resources

Summative Evaluation Process Video

(<http://mediaportal.education.ky.gov/educator-effectiveness/professional-growth-and-effectiveness/2014/04/summative-evaluation-in-the-pges-pilot/>): Dr. Amanda Ellis walks principals through the summative evaluation process, including the input of data into EDS, while providing guidance on the necessary sources of evidence needed at each step to make appropriate professional judgements.

(</teachers/PGES/Documents/Summative%20Evaluation%20Preparation%20Checklist%20with%20Support%20Materials%202014.pdf>)Preparation Checklist with Support Materials (</teachers/PGES/TPGES/Documents/Summative%20Evaluation%20Process%20Preparation%20Checklist%20with%20Materials.pdf>): The first page of this pdf includes a checklist of everything a principal will need to gather before starting the Summative Evaluation Process. The next four pages provide several of the necessary documents from the checklist for your convenience:

- Sources of Evidence/Framework for Teaching Alignment
- State Decision Rules for Determining an Educator's Professional Practice Rating
- State Overall Decision Rules for Determining an Educator's Overall Performance Category
- Rules for Determining an Educator's Summative Growth Cycle
